Trust Your Dreams

“Dreams come a size too big so that we can grow into them.”

~Josie Bisset

What is your heart calling you to do, to be, to learn? Trust these and know that they are revealing the dreams of your soul.

Your dreams can seem like lofty imaginings, nothing more than enticements of the dark. But your dreams are the blueprints of your life calling you to action.

If you convince yourself that they are only dreams, you will roll the blueprints up and stick them under your bed and fall back asleep.

But if you become still, you can hear the words of an ancient master whispering in your ear, “Awake, thou sleeper; arise and take on my glory.”

Trust your dreams, for they are casting magic on the darkest of your nights, illuminating your potential, and beckoning you to discover your fullness.

Trust Your Higher Power

“Grace is an energy; not a mere sentiment; not a mere thought of the almighty: not even a word of the almighty. It is a real energy as the energy of electricity. It is a divine energy, it is the energy of the divine affection rolling in plenteousness toward the shores of human need”

~Benjamin Jowett 1817-1893

We build trust when we experience the integrous nature of another over and over and over again. The sun, through our experience, has proven that it will rise every morning, and we can with all confidence say we trust that the sun will rise tomorrow.

If we desire to wholly trust our Higher Power, we must experience the presence of God over and over and over again by taking time each day to nurture a relationship of the highest caliber.

If you are not experiencing a rich, vital, and clear connection with the Divine, someone has severed the cord... that one is you.

Spending time with The Love of the Ages expands your heart and increases your capacity to receive.

Spending time with The Great Healer washes away your thoughts of lack, limitation, unworthiness, and competition.

Spending time with The Light illuminates the truth of who you are so you can stand victorious over self-doubt, and claim your abundance.

Spending time with The Gracious frees the flow of abundant love, connection, resources, opportunities and ideas.

This practice in turn opens you to the very same power of creation, which created the world, allowing you to enjoy abundance on every front.

Schedule your daily time with your Higher Power:

Time of Day	Amount of Time	The Place

Within YOU is your most valuable asset, your so-called Fortune 500 Company. Within you wells the richness of resources and ideas and creativity. It is where the richness of love and connection begins. Within you, you will find your treasure beyond measure, a perpetual fund that never diminishes, funded by the Source of all.

Claim the gifts of your heart! Claim your inheritance...after all, it is your birthright.

I Claim It!

If you want to stake a claim on the frontier of your dreams, you need to put down your stakes and start to build on this pristine piece of property that is waiting for your ownership.

No one can steal your dream and build the empire that your heart is calling you to build. It will always be there waiting for you to claim, but the secret is...YOU have to CLAIM IT!

Otherwise it goes undiscovered, uncharted and unused; a land that no one will ever cultivate unless you have the courage to lay down your own foundation.

Claim the freedom! Claim the freedom to be! Claim the freedom to be you... personified!

Each day trust and celebrate you by taking inspired steps in the direction of your dreams. With each inspired step, the grandest vision of you will begin to unfold.

I Live It!

“We can only be said to be alive in those moments when our hearts are conscious of our treasures”

~Thornton Wilder

Dreams create an internal combustion that expands your energy out beyond your limitations and allows you to float, even for a moment, in the land of infinite possibilities.

Dreams awaken your senses and give your heart wings to soar. Dreams revitalize, energize and biggie-size your possibilities. Live in the same energy you dream in. Luxuriate in your moments and live in your dream energy, this will allow you to feel the buoyancy of being, expansive and joyful and excited about life and your infinite possibilities.

A Million Dollar Thought:

Money isn't the answer to our question of how to live a life of fulfillment. Money can never fill the void. Only by tapping into our heart's longings and finding our inner resources of power and co-creation to nurture the life of our dreams will true fulfillment occur.
